NOTICE TO THE MARKET

PORTONAVE FORMALIZES COMPLIANCE WITH NEW PORTS LAW

TPI - Triunfo Participações e Investimentos S.A. (“Company”) announces to its shareholders and the general market that its associated company Portonave S.A. – Terminais Portuários de Navegantes (“Portonave”) entered into, with the National Water Transportation Agency (“ANTAQ”, “Concession Authority”), an agreement formalizing its compliance with Federal Law 12,815/2013, known as the New Ports Law.

The agreement strengthens the legal security of the Navegantes Port Terminal. The company is authorized to commercially operate the port facility as a Private-Use Terminal, include the handling and warehousing of general and containerized cargo. The area authorized for the commercial operation of the port facilities is 597,565.00 square meters.

The authorization to commercially operate the terminal is valid for 25 years as from the date of the signing of the agreement, which may be extended for successive periods provided the authorized company maintains activities and makes the investments needed to expand and modernize the port facilities.

About Portonave

Located in Navegantes, Santa Catarina, Portonave is one of Brazil's most modern port terminals. Portonave was selected Port Operator of the Year by Lloyd's List Global Awards 2013. In 2014, it set a new record for container handling productivity in South America of 270.4 movements per hour (mph). Triunfo holds a 50% interest in the business.
