NOTICE TO THE MARKET

ANAC ANNULS FIRST INSTANCE DECISION TO FINE VIRACOPOS

São Paulo, October 10, 2016 – Triunfo Participações e Investimentos S.A. (“Company” or “Triunfo”) (BM&FBOVESPA: TPIS3) hereby announces that the concessionaire responsible for the Viracopos International Airport, Aeroportos Brasil Viracopos S.A. (“ABV” or “concessionaire”) received official letter no. 34 (SEI)/2016/ASTECC-ANAC forwarded by Brazil’s National Civil Aviation Agency (ANAC) regarding the administrative appeal filed by the Concessionaire against fine for alleged noncompliance, in due time, with obligations regarding investments stipulated in the concession agreement related to the first investment cycle ended on May 11, 2014.

After analyzing the appeal, the Board of the Agency, at the 21st Deliberative Meeting of ANAC, unanimously upheld the appeal and overturned the first instance decision that fined the concessionaire. Thus, the proceeding returns to the first instance so that the defects found in the sanctioning proceedings can be rectified, that is, to allow the concessionaire to exercise its full right of defense.

The concessionaire is absolutely certain that it substantially complied with the investment obligations set forth in the Viracopos concession and hence considers the sanctions applied by the now annulled decision disproportionate and excessive.
